

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 6 - Lesson 3 Handling & Restraining Dogs & Cats

Questions

1. Why should clients never be allowed to restrain their own animals for the veterinarian?

2. Explain how to catch a vicious dog or one exposed to rabies.

3. List the steps for making a temporary muzzle.

4. Explain how to modify the temporary muzzle for a pug-nosed dog.

5. What is the purpose of using an Elizabethan collar?

6. What is used to keep a dog from biting a stomach tube?

7. List the steps in holding a dog for intravenous injection.

8. How should a handler hold a dog on its side on a table?

9. Explain how to restrain a dog to draw a blood sample from its jugular vein.

10. Describe the best method for carrying a cat for a short distance.

11. Explain how to carry cats for long distances.
12. Describe the “stretch” technique for restraining a cat.
13. Explain how to catch and restrain a vicious cat.
14. How should a cat be restrained for giving it a pill?
15. Describe the sliding technique for giving a cat a subcutaneous or intramuscular injection.
16. What device is useful in restraining a cat for a bath?
17. How is a cat restrained for an intravenous injection of the foreleg?
18. How is a cat held for jugular venipuncture?