

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 8 - Lesson 1 Fecal, Blood, & Urine Examinations

Questions

Fill-in-the-Blanks

1. _____ are microscopic cells in the blood, also called red blood cells.
2. _____ are microscopic cells in the blood, also called white blood cells.
3. If too much suction is created when drawing blood from an animal, the _____ blood cells may be destroyed.
4. Prevent whole blood from coagulating by mixing it with a/an _____.
5. Use blood for smears within _____ minutes after sample collection.
6. Perform blood cell counts and hemoglobin tests within _____ hours of sample collection.
7. The hematocrit determination includes the sedimentation rate and the _____ (PCV) of the blood.
8. The PCV depends on the size and number of _____ per volume of blood.